

Illinois Abused and Neglected Child Reporting Act

- Illinois law related to the reporting of suspected child abuse or neglect.
- Outlines a variety of persons who are considered “mandatory reporters” under the Act.
- As of June 27, 2012, ALL employees of higher education institutions became mandatory reporters, and are required to sign a form acknowledging that they understand the reporting requirements.

Illinois Abused and Neglected Child Reporting Act

- As a mandatory reporter, you are required to report cases of suspected child abuse or neglect to the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) toll-free 24-hour Child Abuse Hotline, at 1-800-25-ABUSE (22873).
- DCFS will then investigate the matter.

Illinois Abused and Neglected Child Reporting Act

- “Abused Child” is defined as one whose parent or immediate family member, or any other person responsible for the child’s welfare, or any individual residing in the same home as the child, or a paramour of the child’s parent:
  - Inflicts, causes to be inflicted, or allows to be inflicted upon such child physical injury, by other than accidental means which causes death, disfigurement, impairment of physical or emotional health, or loss or impairment of any bodily function;
